Letter from Mayor Lane

1-27-2023

Dear Resident,

As January comes to a close, I find myself enjoying a bit more daylight at the end of the day. While I don't mind snow during the winter months, it's been nice not having to shovel, and our DPW has been able to work on other projects throughout town since they haven't had to focus on snow or ice removal. Let's see what Punxsutawney Phil has to say next Thursday.

Congratulations to Lord of the Wings winner, Melissa Mak, owner of The Front Porch. Some 40 restaurants competed in the competition sponsored by The Towncast's Flavio Romeo. After all votes were counted, The Front Porch was victorious.

Just a reminder that taxes are due next Wednesday, February 1; grace period without penalty of interest is February 10.

Tuesday, January 31, is the last day to register your dog before late fees are applied; if you haven't done so, please stop in to the Health Department.

As I mentioned a couple of weeks ago, the library has announced that Uncle Floyd Vivino will entertain with humor and music on Saturday, March 11, from 2pm to 4pm. For more information on this and other programming planned, please pick up a flyer in the lobby of the library or call the reference desk at 973-427-5745 x17.

Also, if you observe something in town that concerns you, I invite you to call my office, and either I or my administrative assistant will help you.

Have a great weekend.

Sincerely,

Mayor John V. Lane
